<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Construction and vendor contract awards</li> <li>• Alternate selection process</li> <li>• Project funding strategy- According to the Project Cost Summary, the additional funds needed to accept all of the alternate items for the project is $276,335. This number includes all of the 'vision' items for the project. It does not include the equipment for the teen technology lab (an additional $10,000), as this was not in the original scope of the project. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Staff believes that the library fund balance can cover the costs of the additional funds needed for the scope of the project. It was recommended that the library pursue a 'seed money' request to the Boulder Library Foundation (BLF) for the funding of the teen technology lab as it is directly related to teen programming. Commission had consensus in agreement with staff's recommendation.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

- Commission liked the idea of being able to recognize the BLF, if they do agree to fund the technology lab, with a plaque of some kind or similar acknowledgement, which can also serve to educate the public about the BLF and their purpose.

Commission discussion, questions and comments included:

- Better signage is important in the library and a statement was made in favor of the $10,000 budgeted for this item.
- Are the flood improvements going to continue to be integrated with the renovation project? Yes; this is part of the 2014 Capital Improvement Project and, depending on the phasing of the renovation project, the flood improvements will most likely start in the fall. It was suggested that this be done along with the renovation project in order to avoid the library closing for this after the renovation is complete.
- Preliminary ideas for marking the start of project construction
More information can be found in the Main Library Renovation Update Memo in the January packet found online at: http://boulderlibrary.org/pdfs/commission/2014/packet/JanLCPacket\_Combined.pdf

Commission discussion, questions and comments included:

- Staff suggested tying the scheduling of this event along with children’s storytime. Commission was in favor of this idea.
- A suggestion was made to possibly include library-related quotes or important renovation-related dates on the confetti that is released from the confetti cannon.
- Another suggestion was made to invite all of BLF and to invite anyone that has specifically emailed regarding the renovation project.
- Automated Materials Handling (AMH) system replacement and RFID system project update- Schumm will be present at the February meeting and can provide more information about this project. The estimated timeline for the go-live of the new AMH is the end of May.
- Café vendor request for proposal document development- A question was raised about how other libraries handle the cost that the vendor must pay in order to have their café within the library. Staff agreed to follow up.
- Public art selection update- Information on the public art was presented and can be found online in the January meeting handouts at: <http://boulderlibrary.org/pdfs/commission/2014/handouts/14JanMeetingHandouts.pdf>
The four art semifinalists will present their proposals to the art selection panel at the end of February and a finalist will be selected. This information will be shared at the March commission meeting and announced to the public.

Agenda Item 5: Matters from the Commission

5A: Annual review of orientation handbook (table of contents) [7:02 p.m., Audio 59 min]

5B.: Commission update (from memo) [7:07 p.m., Audio 1:04 hr]

- Reminder: Feb. 13 is the deadline for applicants to city advisory boards and commissions, including Library Commission. There was a question about whether we have advertised this opening in the library. The response was that the best way to advertise this is in the library e-newsletter. (Please note: This was done in the Jan. 22 edition and will be done again in the Feb. 5 edition.)

- 2014 annual letter to the City Council- priorities to inform goal setting- This was included in the packet just as a reference.

6B. : Library Update (from memo)

[7:31 p.m., Audio 1:29 hr]

Design Advisory Group (DAG) meeting summary:

The DAG met at the end of January to review studiotrope Design Collective’s (sDC) assessment of the furniture bids and the substitutions from the two vendors that submitted the lowest, complete bids.

Studiotrope also presented their response to staff and commission feedback about the initial graphics package proposed. The DAG requested that new samples of the signs as well as the teen and children’s graphics be provided. These samples will be available for the commission’s review at the Mar. 5, 2014 meeting.

While staff planned to present recommendations for selection and placement of the general and custom furnishings to the commission at the Feb. 5 meeting, more time was needed to evaluate all bids received and select a vendor. Staff anticipates having these available for the commission’s review at the Mar. 5, 2014 meeting also.

Furniture contract award:

The furniture bid opening was held on Friday, Dec. 20. Due to the complexity of the bid request matrix, studiotropeDesign Collective (sDC) reviewed the bid documents and provided DAG with their analysis. First Continental Library Equipment Corp. will be awarded the contract. The base bid is $99,901. Alternate 1 for the café furniture is $23,307. Alternate 2 for furniture outside of the project focus areas (vision) is $131,099. Both alternates were accepted.

First Continental, sDC and the DAG will review and confirm finishes and fabrics chosen for the base furniture package, select finishes and fabrics for the alternate furniture packages; evaluate the substitutions proposed; and identify furniture pieces for which samples will be requested.

Attachment A is the furniture bid request that was also included in the Dec. 2013 meeting packet. Commissioner Sawyer requested additional information be provided for the commission to review the alternate (vision) furniture options and placement. Page 14 and 15 of attachment A are the architectural drawings showing the furniture layout. Each furniture piece is labeled with a code number. Code numbers that begin with a capital “E” indicate existing furniture pieces to be reused. All other furniture codes are referenced in the furniture matrix on page 3 of attachment A. The following description is provided to assist with navigating the document.

Referring to the furniture matrix on page 3 immediately following the heading information, locate the grey row of column headings.

- The column labeled “Room” gives the general area on the architectural drawings A-911 ( attachment A, page 14) and A-912 (attachment A, page 15) in which the furniture piece is located.
- The column labeled “Room #” gives the corresponding room number label on the architectural drawings A-911 (page 14) and A-912 (page 15). On the drawings, the room number label appear as:

180
-----

- The column labeled “Code” gives an item code. If it is followed by a lower-case letter “v,” it is a furniture piece in the project “vision” package. This appears as “CH11v.”
- The column labeled “Base/Alternate” indicates whether the furniture piece is part of the base project or an alternate.
- The column labeled “image” provides a picture of the type and general style of the furniture piece. Colors depicted do not represent actual color selected for this project.

For example, the first item listed on the furniture matrix page 3 is for stool height chairs to be located in the café. Referring to the café drawing on drawing A-911 (page 14), the chair icons along the bar-height counter labeled “CH11” show the location of these furniture pieces.

The commission will continue to be notified as furniture samples are received for evaluation so that those interested can stop by the Main Library and try them out.

Project kick off event:

Staff are planning an event to mark the beginning of the visible construction in the renovation project, a sort of “groundbreaking ceremony,” (although without literally breaking ground), and this will occur on Thursday, Feb. 20 at 11 a.m., in the Canyon Gallery. As noted in the schedule above, construction begins Feb. 24.

The designated officials for this renovation construction kickoff ceremony would say a few words about the importance of this renovation opportunity and thanking voters for making it possible. Then, they would reference the two “columns” on view, which are really two stacks of books, stacked and spiraled into the shapes of large columns. With the push of a button, a burst of confetti will come out of the tops of the “columns” from confetti cannons (rented) inside to mark the project’s beginning. The officials will possibly wear hardhats with the Capital Improvement Bond logo on them for the ceremony (we have the hardhats – it is, of course, up to the speakers if they choose to wear them).

This ceremony will be held in the Canyon Gallery, and will start at 11 a.m., immediately following a musical storytime with a construction theme that is held in the Canyon Theater, so we should have dozens of children and parents/caregivers streaming out of the theater into the gallery “in attendance” at this kickoff event, as well as hopefully some media, and other library patrons. Additional renovation project information will be displayed around the gallery; including renderings, floor plans, the construction schedule, as well as information about impacts to the Main Library collection and operations during phase 1 of the construction. Light refreshments will be served, including some healthy options. Channel 8 staff has agreed to cover this kickoff event for “Inside Boulder News,” which will begin airing on Friday, Feb. 21.

1. Commission Emails

Email from Madelyn Wynne on 1/9/14 - Ms. Wynne raised a concern about the cost of the color cards marketing library events; she recommended reopening the Reynolds and Meadows branch libraries instead of expending the printing costs. She recommended a website survey to get public opinion on library issues.

Landry and Sawyer responded separately. A combination of the responses include: After explaining that the Commission generally doesn't get involved with detailed budget line items, we shared information about the costs of printing these cards and sending out our newsletter vs the costs of the previous newsletter; our intent to do a targeted patron survey as well as a full patron survey once renovations are complete; and the fact that we've begun discussing library budget needs including restoring hours to the branches. Landry also notified Ms. Wynne about the opportunity to apply for the Library Commission. Ms. Wynne responded with additional thoughts concerning more targeted library newsletters, a way for patrons to donate to the library from the library's website, and questioning the renovations costs and NoBo Corner Library investment over reinstating 7 days a week at the Reynolds and Meadows branches. We'll continue to communicate with her regarding these ideas.

2. More Patron Issues

Two patron issues have been brought to Commissioners this month with follow-up information requested from staff. These warrant Commission feedback so I'm attaching details here, and we will discuss as a part of the policies review agenda item.

A. Enforcement of Unattended Children Policy

Commissioner Sawyer received a phone call from a patron concerning a problem that her husband and child had in the library just before Christmas. She explained that her husband was in the library with their 7 and 3 year old sons. When he left the 7 year old alone in the children's area reading for a short time, one of the librarians tracked him down saying that his son was upset (she said he wasn't) and that children under 11 weren't permitted to be in the library alone (she also said the librarian pointed to a sign that says this). The librarian was attempting to convince him with threats of predators in the library, etc., upsetting everyone. Sawyer requested that someone follow up about this event and requested information about enforcement of our unattended children policy from library admin.

In response, Jennifer Miles spoke with the patron and explained that the staff guidelines for enforcing the policy stipulate that when a staff member or security officer notices a child is unattended that youth services staff are contacted to assist with locating the responsible adult, keeping an eye on the child and soothing them if needed. If the adult is not able to be located within 15 minutes, staff or security may opt to contact the police department. If the adult is found, staff are to courteously inform them of the policy and request compliance in the future. Staff are expected to use their best judgment when following these guidelines to enforce the policy (i.e. 15 minutes is the minimum amount time they are to wait before involving law enforcement). Miles agreed that based on the patron description of the incident, the staff members involved overreacted, creating unnecessary upset and agreed to follow up with Mary Jane Holland, Children and Teen Manager.

Sawyer questioned the phrase "The staff guidelines for enforcing the policy stipulate that when a staff member or security officer notices a child is unattended that youth services staff are contacted to assist with locating the responsible adult, keeping an eye on the child and soothing them if needed." Since children are permitted to be alone in the library, if the child is just unattended, she felt that there shouldn't be a concern. If they are upset or causing a disturbance, staff intervention is appropriate.

After discussing the situation with Holland, Miles explained that staff do not usually approach unattended children, unless they have been alone for a really long time, are visibly upset, disruptive, or if staff is concerned for the child's safety. Holland will make sure that all staff, including substitutes, understand and receive coaching on handling this type of situation.

Another reason for greater concern during this time of year is the increased pressure on security officers and staff overseeing the large number of individuals who come to the library on exceptionally cold days. There are often behavioral issues requiring attention in multiple locations within the library making it difficult for staff and security personnel. These circumstances have heightened staff's awareness about the safety of children and others. In an attempt to improve this situation, during the next month on a trial basis, a second security officer will be on call to support the current officer as needed. Additionally, the Boulder Police Department has deployed additional patrols to provide support.

These security concerns weren't offered as an excuse for staff's handling this particular patron incident, but instead rationale of why staff may be more strict in enforcing the unattended children policy given the time of year and the current situation. Miles further explained, "It is never our desire to discourage any child's use of the library, the primary intent of the policy is that they can do so safely. Given that this is a public building open to all, the best way to ensure the safety of small children, regardless of their level of maturity, is if they are under the supervision of an adult."

B. Policy related to Canyon Theater Rental for fee-based Events

Commissioner Landry learned of a January 26, 2pm event in the Canyon Theater. The small event flyer advertised $10 tickets for the public. However, according to the March 2013 Library Commission meeting minutes, the Library Director clarified that any rentals, for library programs in the Canyon Theater, would only be charged to the organization offering the performance (because they would be using the library's resources and the library would be recovering this cost) and would always be free to the public.

The contract for renting Canyon Theater asks if the renting organization will charge a fee to the public. This question about the contract seems to potentially conflict with the policy previously represented by the department director.

Boulder Library Foundation President Carl Manthei also commented on this subject. His memory of what the department director told the BLF Board is consistent with what the March 2013 minutes reflect about the Library renting out the theater on occasion, and never charging admission to the public. The concern is the potential precedent being set in that the theater becomes a profit making venue and the City may see that paying customers are preferred to BLF funded events that do not pay rent or charge admission.

Recently, staff indicated that the event in question is a rental and not a library-sponsored event. It is scheduled in the Canyon Theater. The practice for rentals that has been in place for many years, pre-dating the previous director and the current deputy director, is that individuals or groups that pay the rental fee to use the theater and/or the gallery are permitted to charge admission and/or sell legal goods or services during their events. All library programs and library-sponsored events have always been free of charge.

Commissioners Landry and Sawyer briefly discussed this issue with Miles and Interim Library Director Maureen Rait at the agenda-setting meeting on January 23. Staff was asked to gather some historical Canyon Theater data so commissioners would be better informed for the February commission meeting.

3. West Pedestrian Entrance for Boulder Meadows - Jan 25, 2014 meeting

Boulder Meadows, the mobile home park that straddles 19th Street in north Boulder, had a west entrance which was closed in 2011. Residents have asked Boulder Meadows management without success to have the entrance reopened. With the NoBo Corner Library opening in March, a west entrance is yet more important for access and safety of the residents, particularly children.

City council members Lisa Morzel and Mary Young, BVSD board member Sam Fuqua, Planning Board chair Aaron Brockett, library commissioner Celeste Landry and several NoBo and Boulder Meadows residents attended a meeting on Jan 25 in Boulder Meadows.

The management for Boulder Meadows is an out-of-state company. Council members Morzel and Young will meet with the city attorney's office to discuss what can be done. Lack of an access may be a public safety code violation in the case of fire or flood. Other enclosed neighborhoods have had success with combination locks. GO Boulder was mentioned as a group that is also working to help with neighborhood access. There also might be some efficiencies gained by leveraging post-flood heavy machinery work with constructing a new entrance.

Some background from Maureen Rait:

The trailer park owners closed the access from the trailer park on the northwest corner of the park to Yarmouth a number of years ago. There have been several pleas to them to reopen it so residents can better walk to Broadway, use the SKIP, etc. The owners have not been amenable. It is my understanding that the city does not have a legal means to require that the access be restored.

There is a sidewalk on Yarmouth that extends to 16th Street, but not fully to Lemon, so one has to walk on the shoulder. Also, access at Lemon is not a direct line of travel for some residents of the park. Finally, the sidewalk on the south of Yarmouth was not extended further to the east because of an inability to resolve ditch issues.

MEMORANDUM

To: Boulder Public Library Commission

From: Maureen Rait, Executive Director of Public Works and Interim Library and Arts Director
Matt Chasansky, Art and Cultural Services Manager

Date: January 31, 2014

Subject: Draft Request for Qualifications (RFQ) for consulting services for Community Cultural Plan

As you are aware, the Art and Culture Program will be coordinating a Community Cultural Plan later this year. Attached please find the draft RFQ for consulting services for the Community Cultural Plan project.

The RFQ was reviewed by the Boulder Arts Commission in their January meeting. It was their unanimous opinion that the document was sound, and recommended that staff continue working towards the advertising of the RFQ.

The schedule remains indeterminate. That said we are now in the process of formulating a calendar based on ensuring the new Library & Arts Department Director has the chance to contribute to the selection of a finalist.

The Summary Scope of Work will undergo some refinement. Over the next few weeks, it will be developed into a Full Scope of Work that includes detail under each of the very general subject headings that appear in the attached document. In addition, we are likely to conduct a re-scoping exercise which may further develop the full scope. Not obvious from the summarized Scope of Work section is the process for checking in with both commissions. We feel it is important for the Library Commissioners to understand that there will be at least three opportunities for them to engage with the process:

1. During Phase One we will be forming a steering committee to advise staff and the consultants on the planning process. When that group is being formed we will ask if the Library Commission is willing to assign someone to the committee.
2. The research elements of Phase Two will include a workshop with the Library Commission. It is our hope that this could be a combined workshop, in which the members of the Arts Commission join in to establish mutual responses to the research questions and act as a common voice for the entire department.
3. Phase Three includes review sessions, in which the elements of the emerging plan are discussed and tested with community groups, including the Library Foundation.

We welcome any questions or comments to will help us refine the RFQ at this early stage.

It is the goal of this project to create a functional and sustainable guiding document which a) articulates an understanding of the cultural priorities of the entire community, and b) recommends structures and tools which the City of Boulder municipal government can provide to support the efforts of the community to accomplish those priorities.

III. PROJECT GUIDING PRINCIPLES:

- As a “Community Cultural Plan”, the project has a city-wide perspective and an extensive time-horizon. The Plan will seek to answer the question “What is the community’s vision for culture and the creative industries?”
- Transparency and good stewardship of the public trust will ensure the inclusion of the community’s voice and encourage the continued support for the implementation of this plan.
- Focus areas for the plan may include public art, the creative sector of the economy, funding, sustainable cultural tourism, and the vibrancy of street-level experiences.
- The process should be open and forthcoming, taking best advantage of the City of Boulder’s collaborative professional culture.
- The City-wide priorities of advancing sustainable and resilient practices, encouraging diversity, and promoting the success of Boulder communities should be foundations for the process.

IV. STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS (SOQ)

I. Library Rules of Conduct Additions for Library Commission Review

Background

Boulder Revised Code Section 5-5-18, Suspension of Facility Privileges, provides that the City Manager may suspend the privilege of any person to use any recreation, library, senior center, youth services, open space, or park facility owned or managed by the City who has violated any provision of this code, ordinance of the City, or other law, or a rule issued pursuant to chapter 1-4, "Rulemaking," B.R.C. 1981, or posted on the premises of the facility by the manager, if such person's conduct constitutes a hazard to the health, safety, or welfare of the users of the facility. Any person so suspended shall immediately leave the facility.

Section 134 of the City's Charter outlines the powers of the Commission acting with the City Manager and states that the Commission, with the approval of the City Manager, and by a majority vote of all its members, has power to make and enforce all rules, regulations, and bylaws necessary for the administration, government, and protection of the library and reading rooms and branches, and property.

Acting in accordance with the Charter and Boulder Revised Code, and in order to administer the Suspension of Facility Privileges code provision, the Boulder Public Library Commission adopted rules of conduct to protect the rights and safety of library patrons, volunteers, and staff. The Library Rules of Conduct revised and unanimously approved by the Library Commission on Feb. 6, 2013 and became effective May 31, 2013. They are posted online at: <http://boulderlibrary.org/about/rules.html>.

Proposed additions to the rules of conduct

The following highlighted information is the proposed additions to the library rules of conduct.

Boulder Public Library Rules of Conduct

These rules apply to everyone in the library, except for city employees and contractors of the city doing work at the library. Except as indicated otherwise below, "Library" shall mean all parts of the interior of the Main Boulder Public Library and all branch libraries, including, without limitation, the entrance structures of the Main Boulder Public Library. Any person who violates these rules of conduct may be subject to suspension of privileges in accordance with the procedures of Section 5-5-18, "Suspension of Facility Privileges," Boulder Revised Code \(B.R.C.\) 1981.

No person may:

- ...
- 17. leave bags and other personal items unattended in or outside near any library facility;
- ...
- 23. use any form of electronic cigarettes (i.e. e-cigarettes, or e-cigs). E-cigarettes contain a battery-operated heating device that vaporizes a nicotine-containing solution, creating a mist that is then inhaled;
- 24. display marijuana openly or publicly.

II. Policy for Sponsorship of Programs and Events

Background and purpose

With consideration for the current staff work plan that includes day-to-day operations and priority projects (e.g. Main Library Renovation and opening the NoBo Corner Library), staff proposed a plan to review key library policies beginning in 2014. Staff provided the commission a prioritized list of policies in the December 2013 meeting packet (Attachment A). Staff committed to bring forward a draft of a new program and event sponsorship policy as issues related library sponsorship of programs has recently come up in several situations. This document will serve as interim guidelines and may inform the development of city-wide policy addressing sponsorship.

The policies that will be reviewed following the Policy for Sponsorship of Programs and Events are those that may need to be updated or created in conjunction with the Main Library renovation such as the meeting room usage policies, bulletin boards and distribution of non-library materials. Policy information addressing website content management and social media will be developed in coordination with the implementation of the new web design early in 2015. Staff will provide drafts of these documents for the commission's review as they are developed.

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines and process for the approval of sponsored activities in the Boulder Public Library in order to support consistent, fair administration of city and library resources and a transparent, clear process for the consideration of proposals. Attachment B is the draft policy document.

Policy review process and next steps

Once the Library Commission's input on the draft policy is considered the revised draft will be submitted for review by the City Attorney's Office and the city's policy advisor. Staff will update the Library Commission on the outcome of the review process.

III. Unattended Children Policy and Canyon Theater rental policy information

Commissioners Sawyer and Landry requested the opportunity to review the unattended children policy and the Canyon Theater rental policy at the February commission meeting. Links to these policies are included below.

Commissioner Landry requested five years of information about rental events held in the Canyon Theater at which admission was charged. She also requested attendance figures for a rental event that was held in the Canyon Theater on Jan. 25 and 26. To the extent that this information is available, it will be provided to the commission at the Feb. 5 meeting.

The unattended children policy was approved by the Library Commission on Feb. 6, 2013, and is posted online at <http://boulderlibrary.org/about/unattended-child-policy.html> .

CITY OF BOULDER LIBRARY & ARTS DEPARTMENT
POLICY FOR SPONSORSHIP OF PROGRAMS AND EVENTS DRAFT 1/29/2014

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

It is the purpose of this policy to establish guidelines and processes for the approval of sponsored programs in City of Boulder Library & Arts Department (Boulder Public Library, or BPL) facilities.

BPL facilities are used primarily for BPL programming or for City of Boulder government (City) business. On occasion BPL facilities may be scheduled or rented by community organizations, individuals, and businesses. When appropriate, BPL may choose to sponsor the program of a community organization. The terms below govern the conditions of that sponsorship, the criteria for which proposals for sponsorship are considered, and the process for approval.

DEFINITIONS

1. BPL Facilities — Meeting rooms, certain common areas, the Canyon Theater, the Canyon Gallery, and certain gathering areas outside BPL buildings.
2. Venue Sponsorship Agreements — Further to this policy, additional terms and conditions may be applied to specific venues, and will be detailed in separate Venue Sponsorship Agreement documents. [link]
3. Sponsored Program — Any event, performance, or meeting produced by a community organization, individual, or business outside the City organization which is approved as sponsored by BPL under the authority of this policy.
4. City Business — Any event or meeting that is produced by a City of Boulder agency.
5. BPL Produced Programs — Any event, performance, or meeting that is produced by BPL staff as part of a BPL series of programs. This includes all programs funded by BPL and/or the Boulder Library Foundation.
6. Non-sponsored Scheduled Program — Any event, performance, or meeting that is scheduled to take place in a BPL facility by a community organization, individual, or business outside the City organization, but is not a sponsored activity. These programs are governed by separate use agreements outside this policy.
7. Canyon Theater Rental — Any event, performance, or meeting that is scheduled to rent the Canyon Theater or Gallery for established fees. These programs are governed by separate rental agreements outside this policy.
8. Recurring Programs — Programs that are scheduled over a long period of time and at regular intervals. For instance: daily, weekly, monthly, or quarterly meetings would be considered recurring. Several events in a limited series held over a few days that a part of a festival or convention would not be considered recurring.

MEANING OF SPONSORSHIP

Sponsorship is defined as BPL endorsement of the program.

When a proposal is accepted as a sponsored program, BPL will provide the following:

1. Communications — BPL will post information about the sponsored program in the library’s website calendar. At the discretion of BPL administration, the program will also be listed in BPL printed material, on in-library digital displays, in BPL media communications, or other messaging. The content and distribution of any additional communications material will be at the sole discretion of BPL administration.
2. Staff Support — As appropriate, pre-arranged assistance will be available to support the sponsored program with questions regarding audio/visual equipment, internet connections, and scheduling assistance. Additional information about support may be detailed in the specific Venue Sponsorship Agreement.
3. Rental Fees for the Canyon Theater — For the Canyon Theater only, the sponsored program’s rental fees will be waived as an in-kind donation. In certain cases there may be fees applied outside of the subsidized rent. These fees are detailed in the Venue Sponsorship Agreement.

The sponsored program will provide the following as a condition of sponsorship:

1. Recognition — Inclusion of the BPL logo or other credit information in all marketing material.
2. Post-event Reporting — The responsible party for the program will provide a report after the end of the program which details attendance data. Further information may be requested, such as press clippings, marketing collateral, and a narrative about the success of the program in addressing the standards outlined in the Criteria for Review of Proposals, above .

Further terms of sponsorship particular to each venue will be detailed in the Venue Sponsorship Agreement.

CRITERIA FOR REVIEW OF PROPOSALS

Proposals will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

1. Supports the BPL Mission — The mission of the Boulder Public Library is to enhance the personal and professional growth of Boulder residents and contribute to the development and sustainability of an engaged community through free access to ideas, information, cultural experiences and educational opportunities.
2. Cultural Value — The proposed program is an impactful cultural resource for the City of Boulder.
3. Community Benefit — The proposed program will be of demonstrable benefit to Boulder residents and library patrons. The proposed program will be free and open to all, accessible, and encourage participation.

4. Fills a Need — The proposed program will complement, or fill an unmet need not available in, programs elsewhere in Boulder. The proposed program will not be in competition with other public or private organizations, or duplicate events that are occurring at other venues.
5. Benefits the Applicant Organization — The proposed program will be improved, or will be better able to serve its audience, by use of BPL facilities.

APPROVAL PROCESS

1. Submission and Point of Contact — The submission of an application for sponsorship, and all communications about the process for approval of sponsorships must be conducted with the BPL staff person responsible for the particular venue to which one is applying. The contact information for each venue can be found in the Venue Sponsorship Agreement. [link]
2. Deadline for Submission of Application — Applications for sponsorship will be considered no less than three (3) months before the start date of the program.
3. Proposal Review — The BPL staff person responsible for the specific venue associated with the proposal will review the application for compliance with the General Conditions and Restrictions, as well as the terms of the appropriate Venue Sponsorship Agreement. Acceptable proposals will then be evaluated by the BPL administration and the Library and Arts Department Director according to the Criteria for Review of Proposals, above. These reviews may take up to 30 days to complete.
4. Final Approval — The Library and Arts Director has final approval of all proposals. Even after final approval of a sponsorship proposal is received, no program is considered officially sponsored until scheduling is confirmed, and the Venue Sponsorship Agreement is complete.
5. Notification — The applicant will be notified within five (5) business days of the final decision.

GENERAL CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

The following conditions and restrictions are requirements for consideration of any sponsorship proposal.

1. Availability — City business and BPL produced programs are the priority for scheduling any BPL facility. Second to this, sponsored programs may be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. Non-sponsored scheduled programs and Canyon Theater rentals are considered third priority.

III. NoBo Corner Library update

Lease negotiations with Boulder Housing Partners are progressing and expected to conclude mid-February. In the meantime, staff is working on ordering materials, shelving, and furniture for the NoBo Corner Library. The shelving is the same product that is being purchased for the Main Library.

Schedule

Based upon the input gathered from the north Boulder community members who attended the Dec. 6, 2013 open house (Attachment A) and/or participated in the online survey (Attachment B), the following schedule has been identified for the NoBo Corner Library.

Sunday	12 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Monday	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Tuesday	10 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Wednesday	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Secondary factors that were considered in the development of the schedule were:

- Consistent opening and closing times to make the schedule easy for patrons to remember.
- Scheduling the open hours to correspond to the Main Library schedule in order to provide the three-member NoBo staff with back-up reference and staffing support.
- Providing the NoBo staff with two consecutive days off each week given that they will be required to cover both weekend days and an evening.

Services

Services offered were selected based upon the following:

- Input gathered from the community during the summer of 2013 and confirmed by the online survey administered in December 2013 and early January 2014 (Attachment B), and
- The feasibility of offering the widest variety of services relevant to the greatest number of users given the constraints of the physical space and the resources available.

For the purposes of future planning and to gauge interest in other potential programs and services, the community was asked open-ended questions at the open house (Attachment A) and on the survey (Attachment C and D) about the services and programs desired by patrons at the NoBo Corner Library. Many creative suggestions were received. Staff is considering the feasibility of pursuing a few that entail partnering with other city departments or businesses (e.g. NoBo storytime in the park or in a north Boulder restaurant) after the library has been open for six months. Any questions submitted by respondents via email or the survey were answered by staff. While it is not possible at this time and within the current space to implement many ideas proposed, staff value the community's input and will keep these comments for future reference if the opportunity arises to change or expand the services offered in north Boulder.

Assessment

Staff will assess overall use of the services and facility through patron and staff feedback and analysis of use statistics after the first six months of operation before proposing any changes to the services offered or the schedule. Patron foot-traffic will be collected via door counters and used to inform any future schedule changes.

IV. Library Program Priorities and Long-Range Planning: master plan goal review

In an effort to assist the staff with prioritizing library programs and services, and to assess the value of library accomplishments since the 2007 Library Master Plan (<http://boulderlibrary.org/masterplan/docs/07MPBookFinal.pdf>) was completed, the commission began working with staff to review the progress made in meeting the 2007 Library Master Plan goals in 2013. Commission also reviewed past and current budgets and expenditures by divisions within the library.

The commission's discussion of this information will assist staff in determining whether the library budget and resources are adequate and distributed appropriately. It will also create a basis for the updating of the 2007 Library Master Plan, tentatively scheduled to begin in 2015.

The funding goal is the only goal remaining for review (page 69, 2007 Library Master Plan). Following the completion of the goal review, the commission and staff plan to review Appendix J. Estimated Costs – Fiscally Constrained Unfunded Strategies (page 86) and evaluate whether the strategies listed have been addressed. It is also the desire of the commission and staff to create a new set of performance standards and measures (page 55) for the master plan update that more specifically measure outcomes and impacts.

A commission subcommittee was appointed to determine the final format of the information provided for the goal review and to identify a plan for the next steps noted above. The subcommittee did not schedule a meeting, and the work on the goal review was suspended in order to focus on the Main Library renovation project.

The following list of links is to Library Commission meeting packets for each master plan goal discussed.

V. Update on Library Foundation program funding requests spring round

The timeline for the spring round of funding requests to the Library Foundation has been shifted from March to April to allow for the new library and arts director's participation in the process. Staff will submit funding requests to the library leadership team by mid-March for consideration and refinement. A list of the funding request concepts approved by the leadership team will be provided as an information item to the Library Commission in the April meeting packet. The Boulder Library Foundation will vote on the requests at the end of April.

VI. Follow up from January meeting: Success measures for the new electronic music and movie resource – Hoopla

Hoopla's administrative statistics will provide the collection development team with circulations by title and format, cost per title, and the ability to graph trends in usage by title, format, and active patrons. Staff's evaluation of Hoopla will include both quantitative metrics that Hoopla provides as well as qualitative data on the collection contents (e.g. which titles are in demand, which are not). In much the same way that the library's physical collection is evaluated through circulation usage and relevance, the same criteria will be used to inform the staff if Hoopla content is useful to patrons. Success will be indicated by an upward trend in number of patrons actively using the service and consistent checkouts across a broad range of titles and formats over a three year evaluation period.

VII. Update on George Reynolds Branch Library fireplace

The fireplace at the George Reynolds Branch Library is now fully operational and being enjoyed by patrons. A plaque recognizing the generous contribution of the Boulder Library Foundation for the fireplace gas connection and log insert is on order. Photos of the fireplace are included below.

Questions for the commission:

Does the Library Commission have any questions or feedback about this information?

- A concern for users and staff: libraries traditionally open their doors to everyone, including our homeless community members. I have valued this approach in general. But given the NoBo Corner Library's proximity to the shelter I wonder how you will manage this issue in this small space. I wish you well as you negotiate these challenges and opportunities.
- A drop off would be nice in northeast boulder somewhere
- A good spot to tie up the dogs would be very helpful, so that we could pick up materials on the dogs' evening walk
- a great plan!
- Absolutely thrilled! Happy New Year!!!!!!
- Any day, any time during the day.
I'm excited to have services so convenient to me.
Best hours would be 9-5
- Children's Hour could be for reading stories; or special art & craft event; or...
Will there be access to water/sink? To a bathroom?
What about volunteers? I am interested...
PS. My husband has volunteered. I am just a bit slow the last two weeks.
- Comfy chairs and work stations. Allow coffee. Have Newspapers. Some periodicals. Book drop box for after hours.
- Depending upon the quantity and quality of selection of books and other media, I may browse for media to borrow.
- don't really know the hours until I check out the collection, so I've just estimated vis-a-vis how I use the downtown library.
- During the summer we're more apt to use the library when the kids are out of school.
- Excited about the new library. It will be closer to my house. Therefore, it will be more convenient. Thank you.
- Finally! We live in North Boulder, and will use it!
- Given the small size of this location and its proximity to the homeless shelter I encourage you to consider limits on use (wi-fi, computer access, etc) to avoid it becoming an alternative shelter location

- Great place for the library. Much needed.
- Having a small children's area would be great!
- I am concerned that it will be a hangout during the day for the homeless in the area and make it unappealing for others to use- since it is so small.
- I am excited to have library options in North Boulder!
- I am interested in volunteer opportunities but missed the open house event. Contact me when appropriate to discuss
- I am so excited about this corner library. It will save driving downtown! I can walk to this library easily. Can't wait!
- I am very appreciative of this new plan for library presence in NoBo! Hooray!
- I am very encouraged to hear that there will finally be a library in North Boulder. We've needed this for 20 years!
- I am very happy to see that this is going to happen. It is long, long overdue.
- I don't care what time it's open, any time works for me. I'd love to not have to drive downtown to pick up or return books. I'm so glad we get to have this new branch.
- I don't know if this new NoBo branch will be large enough or have enough materials to need volunteers, but if it will, please put me on your list. I'm an old-fashioned library lover, so - depending on your open hours and days - I could help with shelving, etc., just like in libraries of yore.
- I generally have books I order from prospector delivered to the library. The day of the week for pickup isn't important, but I would most likely pick them up and return them in the morning.
- I go to the Main branch for many reasons (pick up hold items, returns, to read periodicals, looking for books to read, use the free WiFi) any day of the week and any time when I have spare time. I would say though that I usually go around 4-6pm. I would LOVE to have a branch closer to me in the NoBo area, because I live (and work from home) near Jay Rd. and 47th St. and hate going downtown. To take a bus downtown takes a long time from my area; so, I usually end up making a special car trip. Plus, my gym is on N. Broadway, next to Proto's Pizza, and I usually go there between noon-6 pm 4-6 days a week. Having a library branch so close to other places I go more often would be great, even if it isn't as large as the Main branch. It will be very welcome to the North Boulder community, to the homeless folks who come up north for the shelter, for those people who live in the foothills up Lee Hill Rd. and beyond, the folks in trailer parks up this way, and those in the Holiday neighborhood. I know a lot of people would use it!

- I have no strong preferences about times but the form won't submit without them. I am happy to learn that a library will be opening here.
- I have started downloading books on my Kindle from the library and don't go as often as I used to. I do appreciate having the library open but I hope it doesn't become a drop in center for the homeless.
- I have two children, 5 and 6, both boys. We or I go to the library about 1 x a week. I often have the librarian put together a bundle for me. We live up Lee Hill so it is really nice that you will be close. We will go even more often, I think, to the new North location. Thanks! Also, let me know if you need volunteers in getting things started.
- I hope the library will have a street access book drop off. Parking is limited in the area. I do not bike and live in Gunbarrel. NoBo library is "supposed" to serve the Gunbarrel community, even though NoBoLib is ~5 miles from my home.
- I live a few blocks away and I'm excited that you are opening up here! There are lots of children in this neighborhood and it would be nice for them to have access to books & computers too. Thanks.
- I live in Gunbarrel and find going to the southern libraries a pain. It'll be wonderful to have something up north!
- I live just down the street and I would be VERY excited to have a library so close. It is usually inconvenient to pick up books at the other branches since I spend most of my time in north and east Boulder.
- I live up Linden, and have two Elementary-aged readers currently engrossed in series-type chapter books. They go through them so quickly! We would not use computers, but the new branch would be helpful for us in that it is closer than the Boulder Creek location.
- I think this is the greatest idea, and a great step in the evolution of libraries in the nomadic/post-print age.
- I think this would be very convenient to pick up books on hold and drop books off. I always go to the downtown library but the parking is getting to be a problem there.
- I want a library that is not over run with foul smelling transients. I want to come with my children and read and use the computers. If there are transients I will not come. They have ruined the main library and I expect the same will happen in nobo. Why not build an annex in the shelter?

- I work nearby by working hours are best.
- I would like to browse and check out print books that are not bestsellers, that is, I want to see books that are classics, good literature, the best that has been written and thought over the ages. New/Popular certainly has a place, but it should not take the place, or drive out older literature, philosophy and so forth. I realize space will be limited at the upper Nobovia branch--still, please make an effort to include a selection of older books that have stood the test of time (which very few of the newer will be able to do).
- I would love for there to be an enclosed reading area for children.
- I'm concerned that if there are hour long sit down computers with internet access the homeless dudes that stay at the shelter across the street will be in there all the time. I wouldn't feel very safe in such a small space unless there was a security guard.
- I'm interested to work at your library
- I'm so excited about this new library two blocks from home! :)
- I'm so excited for this branch to be close to where I live. Thanks!
- I'm so glad to see some library support in N. Boulder. This is long awaited!
- I'm very excited for this new location! As a north Boulder resident, I don't use the library as much as I'd like to because the other locations are not near my usual activities. I think this will be a great offering for the community.
- I'm very excited to hear of a possible library station in North Boulder! I would love to volunteer there if it opens, and I will keep an eye out for updates.
- It will be great to not waste the gas/time to pickup & return items. I am not looking for anything other than these services.
- Leaving this branch open on weekends (or until 9pm on any day of the week) will likely make it a hub of loitering for the homeless population that is now being concentrated in this neighborhood. I have no doubt that opening this branch is also an effort to divert the homeless from loitering at the main branch in downtown Boulder, to a location on the very edge of North Boulder and away from tourists who might encounter them downtown. It's just one more step in concentrating ALL of the homeless services into a 2-block area on the edge of town, which also happens to be my neighborhood.

- Location seems to be in the far north and west corner of Boulder. Something more centrally located in north Boulder would be better. Since this site was offered, it may be the only one you can consider.
- Looking forward to hanging out with sexually violent predator Sean Christopher Jackson at Nobo library - thanks for bringing him to our hood. Lucky all you self-righteous BHP folks get to go home to Sobo every night and don't have to have scary sexual predators in your neighborhood.
- My favorite thing about the main library are all the wonderful staff recs for fiction. I would love that at the corner nook!
- Noon is such a bad cut off time. I would like something like 9 to 3.
- Noon to six would cover me most days.
- Perhaps some of the (admittedly limited) space could be curtained off (using a system similar to that used around hospital beds) to allow meetings/discussions without interfering with other users' use of the room.
- Please do not offer wi-fi or public computer access at this location. It seems reckless to give free computer access, with internet, at a location, literally in a public housing building that's chiefly for families, across from a homeless shelter that happens to be in between a liquor store and a strip club. The library idea is great, but there is no reason to offer free use of internet-enabled computers. It attracts people who hang out online all day playing games and/or looking at pornography, and as a father of a 4-year-old who lives in the building that concerns me.
- Please have a story time for toddlers!!!!!!
- Primarily, picking up holds previously requested. Doesn't expect to browse much-laura
- Since I live in South Boulder and regularly use the George Reynolds Library I probably won't use the North Library...BUT: I AM REALLY IN FAVOR OF THE NEW LIBRARY IN NORTH BOULDER!
- so excited a NoBo branch opening!
- so excited to have a library in NoBo. I am an avid reader and look forward to being able to order library books and pick them up here, closer to home.
- so glad to see we will have a little branch. Will there be any type of reservable community room? This part of town needs one!
- so glad we're going to have a mini-library up here!
- So nice of you to give your sex offender homeless population more reason to malingering around Nobo and harass the tax paying residents.

- Speaking with other neighbors and with recent crime, there is concern that free wifi may make this corner library susceptible to inappropriate use and loitering. What are measures considered to insure this will be a safe addition to the community. Currently, my children are reluctant to visit the libraries in town because of witnessing violent interactions with transient people using the internet services. I feel more needs to be done to create a safe environment for the employees and all the patrons of Boulder libraries. There are concerns that bringing the NoBo Corner Library to the neighborhood will increase the negative aspects of the increasing transient population, and without measures intent to address these issues of safety and security, the positive intent of this library service will not be felt.
- Story time for babies would be great! 9 am opening also preferred
- Sufficient parking would be nice.
- Thank you for thinking about us in North Boulder.
- Thank you.
- The above blocks will lead to erroneous conclusions about when are the best times. Why are they 2, 4 and 5 hour choices. Very likely after work hours would be popular, but not until 9pm. The last column should have been 4-7, and 7-9.
- The proximity of the proposed NoBo library to the existing homeless shelter, and the reality that the patron experience at the main library is dominated by the homeless/transient population, suggests that the NoBo facility will not be a place I'll wish to visit. But thanks for your efforts.
- There are a lot of kids in this neighborhood so it would be great to have story times or other events for children.
- There aren't specific days I go, but it's usually early afternoon during the week. My daughter works full time so goes weekends or evenings.
- This is a great first step for this neighborhood. My hope is that we can use this satellite location for picking up and dropping off books that were transferred to/from other locations. Is this a goal to support this function or is it only going to service for the books that are held at this location?
- This is great news about the north Boulder library branch. Hooray!
- This location, which is near a large Spanish-speaking residential area, is perfect for inclusion of outreach services. Residents may be more inclined to learn about Spanish-language materials housed at the main library if they can attend a library program in their own neighborhood. The non-profit Immigrant Legal Center would be glad to partner with outreach services at the NoBo library.

- very much looking forward to the branch
- We are SO excited about our new NoBo library!!
|Will there be a dedicated kids section?
- We are very excited about having a library nearby!
- We come for all sorts of events for children.
- we do not need a north boulder library.
|We do need you to "clean up the act" at the regular library - it is smelly, not clean, has too many homeless there and we can not come in and sit on a chair and feel we are not getting lice, bedbugs, urine, etc... dirt, etc... Do not let the "homeless" come in and sleep there, sit all day, etc. disregard my times for use as I will not use it.
- We have lived in North Boulder for 30 years and have been waiting all that time for our own library branch. PLEASE make it large enough to have a selection of books, audio books, DVD's, CD's, and children's's books for perusal and checkout!!!
- We've been promised a library in the burgeoning North Boulder area since at least 1999. There is probably more development going on in this part of Boulder than any other, and the City Council doesn't seem to be aware of this fact in so many ways it's ridiculous. The NoBo library ought to be as full-service as Meadows. Having it would prevent a lot of driving for those of us who can't walk, bicycle, or take the bus to the distant branches. Get on with it already!
- Will this be NET NEW books? I still like the "everythingness" of BPL, but a little place with lots of new books and space would be fun
- With its proximity to the homeless shelter, be prepared for it to be occupied primarily by homeless patrons during all business hours (as is the case with the main library branch downtown).
- Would be nice to have access after 6pm on weekends (fri/sat especially).
- Would like a 24-hour drop off box.
- Would love to see a good kids section there.
- wow...really. Opening up a North Boulder Library when you can barely keep the Boulder Day Shelter, also known as the Main Branch, functioning? After I biked through 95 drugged out "home-free" people on the North library lawn, and scurried over the backpacks, through the strong odors from the unbathed cross-section of "backpackers" playing poker on the internet in the main entrance, I recently tried to check out Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance. "Sorry... I know out says it is on the shelf but that is one of our most stolen books." replied a librarian. Hmm... maybe it IS a good idea to abandoned the main branch. It is probably beyond saving. Anyway, I prefer to put books on hold at GRB or Meadows so I can linger and peruse through the stacks in a fresh smelling place where I don't have to constantly look over my shoulder to see what is lurking in the more remote corners.
