

UNIVERSITY HILL UPDATE – UHCAMC EDITION

From: Sarah K. Wiebenson, Hill Community Development Coordinator

To: University Hill Stakeholders

Date: Tuesday, July 12, 2016

Last Wednesday, the University Hill Commercial Area Management Commission (UHCAMC) held its annual retreat to set its agenda for the next year. The five-member commission is appointed by the City Council to advise on policies and budgetary matters related to the University Hill Commercial Area General Improvement District (UHGID). Three members must be business or property owners within UHGID; two members must be “at-large” community members; and all must be city residents.

Top priorities of the commission for the remainder of 2016:

1. Support the proposed Hill hotel/public parking garage public-private partnership;
2. Continue to enhance district accessibility via regional public transit; and,
3. Strategic planning for community engagement in the improvements to quality of life on the Hill
