

Developments of for-sale homes are required to provide a minimum of half of the required affordable units on-site; developers have the option of making a CIL contribution for the other half. For sale developments that do not provide any affordable units on-site are subject to a 50% adjustment to the CIL amount for any units required but not provided on-site. Rental developments may provide CIL for 100% of the requirement without an adjustment. CIL amounts are adjusted annually on July 1. The amount due is based on the amount in place when the building permit is issued and payment is due upon building permit issuance.

Developments with 5 or more dwelling units:

- For each required permanently affordable detached unit; when the floor area of all units average greater than 1,200 sq. ft. = $179,971
- For one market rate detached unit; when the floor area is greater than 1,200 sq. ft. = $35,994
- For each required permanently affordable attached unit; when the floor area of all units average greater than 1,200 sq. ft. = $157,194

When the floor area of all units average less than 1,200 sq. ft., CIL for each required affordable unit may be determined per the following table:
