The results within this report summarize the image preference surveys conducted with the Joint Board on May 14, 2015, and a public community workshop on May 16, 2015.

An Image Preference Survey (IPS) is a powerful tool used for eliciting group preferences on community character and appearance. It can help create a visual vocabulary to enhance discussion of image and definition of place. In our IPS, participants were shown a series of PowerPoint slides, each containing photographs related to geographic areas within the station areas. To offer a full range of options, images were drawn from local, regional, and national examples. Participants scored each image from -5 to +5 (most negative to most positive), and then images with the highest and lowest overall scores were discussed at smaller table gatherings.

This summary shows the average score for each image, as well as comments from participants recorded during the discussions following the survey. Average scores and comments are colored coded per the key at the top of each page. These results, in combination with stakeholder interviews, input from the FBC Pilot Working Group, relevant boards and commissions, and Council, will be used to help inform building and streetscape design issues that need to be addressed through the pilot form-based code for Boulder Junction.

- Good activation at ground level
- Strong middle & top
- Like dimension and depth
- Like entry
- Too plain
- Safe and inviting to pedestrians

10R
- No relationship between top and bottom
- Successful mixed-use building
- Wish corner had more going on
- Should not dishonor building
- Feels like simple commercial

17L
- Industrial materials – metal materials
- Boxy
- Do not know what it is
- Like alternating facades

1L
- Shadowy, looming
- Street activation
- Nice depth
- Like accessibility to the street – pedestrian friendly windows
- 2nd story overhang is pedestrian friendly – provides shade
- Don't like plainness – it fulfills FAR, not visually interesting
- Like that brick matches many Boulder buildings
- Width of overhang walkway is narrow but acceptable for use, but too low
Mixed-Use Buildings  IPS Results

8R

- Like modern architecture
- Although a flat façade, small variations in decoration and variation in fiber cement façade color help it not feel flat
- Scale/proportion feels contemporary/European – good for the Junction
- 1st story might not work for pedestrians
- 1st story windows help lessen

“heaviness” of red materials
Like materials, but not roof – flat rooflines are boring
No cornice
Strange protrusion
Square glass – bad!

3L

- Don’t like – too many materials
- Like traditional proportion of windows – window shape, simple and symmetrical
- Like strong corner anchor
- Very transit-oriented
- Love industrial modern with traditional elements, and metal

Like strong cornice
Like industrial feel
Love industrial modern with traditional elements, and metal

9L

- Like scale, that it is so close to street
- Architecture could be better

7L

- Decent streetface
- Defined top, middle, and bottom
- Good balance
- A little too much
- Columns keep pedestrians away

- Negative – too detached
- Not suitable for anywhere
- Too random!
- Odd materials
- Cheap and cheesy
- Chaotic form
- Nice entrances

- Too generic
- No vibrancy
- How many materials are too many? It depends on what they are – typical cottage siding from the 1950s
- Columns are awful
- Doesn’t fit into context – need more modern look

  - Don't like "moat" (wall)
  - Top portion is strange
  - Complicated
  - Tall windows are great; especially on top floors, helps create diverse price points
  - Scale, seems never-ending complex broken into separate buildings
  - Site relationship is okay, but depends on the site
  - Like separation between private and public realm
  - Like separation of buildings, instead of one long row – easier to manage an emergency
  - Windows on the sides of the home; pattern language lights in 2/3 bedrooms

- Negative – narrow, but feels intimate
- Likes softness with materials, and not uninviting
- Likes canopy, but mulch might be too much
- Healthy landscape materials
- Like detached walk with plants on both sides
- Like on-street parking, parallel parking is friendly
- Like building height and trees – provide more comfortable sidewalk
- Building has variation, but not overly
- Sidewalk is a bit narrow, but good in residential
- Like green and entryways
- Seems comfortable, nice to sit on porches

- Positive – hide sidewalk, but interesting
- Tall windows – transparency
- Like simplicity of materials
- Building has variation, but not overly
- Like interest on both sides of walk
- Sidewalk feels narrow
- Feeling of enclosure

- Like building design
- Like light fixture, planters, width of sidewalk
- Awning feeling good
- Narrow sidewalk
- Active space
- Inviting building entrances
- Love this – recessed doors, varied landscape, glass
- Like the transparency of the windows
- Overhang of façade extending into street

- Inviting: like landscaping
- Good setback
- Is tree or planting bed better? – can tree thrive?
- Sidewalk is narrow – should be wider
- Appropriate for residential
- Greenery
- Front is set back, but not a place to stop; building has a social space – set back
- Shade and green overwhelmed with too much concrete
- Not bike friendly
- Sense of enclosure – mature trees
- Too close with branches; safety issue with snow and branches falling down
- Narrower sidewalk perhaps more efficient for lower traffic areas
- Should use separated bike lanes
- Porches toward pedestrian streets are good – not toward car streets
- Love narrow width – feels urban and comfortable
- Like break between sidewalk and street
- Transition is great with help of vegetation

Comments:
- Like seating, but needs to be interesting
- Building face is pleasant; like articulation
- Like mixture of plants
- Like width of sidewalk-scape
- Like staggered depths of buildings
- Narrow sidewalk makes more cozy and width of street
- Like buffer between parking and walk – room for street furniture
- Attractive place to linger – slanted parking, trees need to grow up
- Like seating, parking
- Good for pedestrians
- Angle parking has more mass
- Variation of building materials at ped level is good; material change; in and out of façade; differing articulation
- Planter not good; too small to be useful, and feels in the way
- Tree grates better than grass – raised beds okay too; mulch or rocks okay
- Love – feels interesting
- Proportion of width in walkway is nice

- Like tree/landscaping separation
- And is long enough buffer
- Wide sidewalk
- Good landscaping
- Elevation change
- Not drawing in, no access points
- Landscape, buildings feel good
- Street trees
- Like awnings and flags

- Negative – Pull-in is more aggressive than parallel parking
- Like head-in parking
- Like cars and landscaping and seating
- Seating is key
- Overhangs are very pedestrian-friendly
- Like canopy overhead
- Like materials, shape, and landscaping
- Very attractive space
- Okay for retail only – like overhangs
- Having 2 walking areas is weird
