** Applicants must be between 14 to 18 years of age.

** Dress Attire is business casual, unless otherwise instructed. This means no ripped jeans, no shorts and no t-shirts with offensive artwork. If the student comes to class dressed inappropriately, they will be dismissed for the day.

** There is an hour for lunch each day. Students are encouraged to bring their own lunch, leaving the facility during that time is discouraged. Lunch will be provided on the last day of class.

** Physical Training (PT) will occur for an hour every day. Each student will need to bring workout clothes to change in to so they can participate in PT.

** Students will experience hands on training, and a look into the world of policing. From crime scene processing, to interviewing skills, and report writing, participants will get a unique look into specific operations within the Police Department.

** If you are interested in Law Enforcement, or would someday like to work in the Law Enforcement field, the Youth Academy is for you. You will get an in-depth look into what Law Enforcement is really like!

** Sign up today! The deadline to apply is May 27, 2016
