

We're looking for someone who excels at

COLLABORATION

Criminalist Supervisor

at the Boulder Police Department

The Position

The Criminalist Supervisor will be a leader who inspires their team to achieve the department's mission of working with the community to provide service and safety. He or she will work as a hands-on criminalist and will also be responsible for managing the department's Criminalists.

With a sense of future possibilities, and a realistic perspective, the Criminalist Supervisor will create strategies designed to move the department forward technologically, while ensuring that the needs of the department's internal and external customers are being met.

The Criminalist Supervisor will work in tandem with the in-house, Colorado Bureau of Investigations DNA laboratory adjacent to the crime lab at the department. In addition to daily input into the operation of the crime lab, the supervisor will also play an important role in shaping its future direction.

Qualifications

Bachelor's degree and a minimum of three years of Criminalistics experience, or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

Two or more years of personnel supervisory experience.

Advanced communication and report writing skills

Application deadline - Monday, January 26th.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate is an effective communicator who can build relationships with people both inside and out of the organization.

He or she will possess a unique combination of technical knowledge and supervisory experience, as well as the ability to work collaboratively as part of a team.

The ideal candidate is also a seasoned professional with a drive to excel through continuous learning. They will take advantage of the enormous opportunity for ongoing training. They will also possess excellent ethics, and values, as well as a respect for others.

The City

Serving the city of Boulder at the edge of the Rocky Mountains, with a population of over 100,000, the department handles more than 81,000 calls per service a year.

Located at 5,430 feet above sea level, Boulder is home to the University of Colorado and is surrounded by extensive natural areas of city trails open space and mountain parks.

Compensation

The hiring range is $74,550 to $87,500 (DOE). The salary range cap is $113,500.

This city offers a highly competitive compensation package, including comprehensive health care coverage and over four weeks of paid time off.

with Innovation

Expertise

and Drive