
BOULDER CIVIC AREA PROJECT

CONSTRUCTION PHASING AND LOGISTICS PLAN LATE NOVEMBER 2016 THROUGH MARCH 2017

For information, visit bouldercolorado.gov/civic-area

READY, SET, DIG!

Boulder Civic Area Project | Thank you for visiting us today!

COMMUNITY CULTURE & SAFETY

As you are someone who frequents the facilities/amenities in the Civic Area, we want to make sure you are aware of upcoming changes and how to access this building and its services.

The City of Boulder is planning to start construction of the park funded through the Community, Culture and Safety Tax passed by voters in 2014.

For information, or to visualize the enhancements, visit BoulderColorado.gov/Civic-Area

Questions? email bcateam@bouldercolorado.gov

COMING SOON...

WHAT'S THE PLAN?

Late November 2016 to March 2017

- Access to the buildings will be maintained at all times.
- Portions of the park will be closed during construction for your safety.
- During the earliest portion of construction, 39 parking spaces will be blocked off in the eastern portion of the Canyon/Municipal lot.
- Alternate parking is available at:
  - Main Boulder Public Library
    Metered parking Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; FREE 90 min.
  - Broadway and Arapahoe Lots
    Metered parking Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Saturdays, Sundays and holidays are FREE
  - Parking Garage at 11th and Walnut (Randolph Center)
  - Parking Garage at 10th and Walnut (St. Julien)
  - Parking Garage at 14th and Walnut (RTD)
  - More options at bouldercolorado.gov/parking-services
- Visitors are encouraged to arrive by bus, bike or foot (this also supports Boulder's sustainability efforts).
- Please refer to the front of this flier for pedestrian access paths that will guide you safely around the construction zone.