

Nablus Working Group
August 31, 2016
Meeting Agenda

Location: Municipal Service Center – 5050 Pearl Street in Boulder

5:30 pm Welcome and Agenda Review

5:35 pm Review/Discuss Final Report

At the previous meeting, the Working Group suggested that the facilitator draft a report about the process and major themes from past meetings. Members have reviewed a first draft and submitted their comments. The Working Group will spend time discussing the changes made to this document and if or how it should be used going forward.

7:00 pm Suggestion for City Council Messaging to Support Community Healing

At the previous meeting, Working Group members expressed concern about community backlash regarding the final City Council decision regarding the application. Whether the application is denied or approved, it will still send a message to the community and is likely to be viewed as hurtful or additionally divisive by some. The Working Group will spend time discussing ideas of how City Council can present their decision in a manner that encourages community healing.

7:40 pm Reflecting on Public Comment to Date

7:50 pm Next Steps

8:00 pm Adjourn

Direction to the Working Group from City Council: “The goal of the committee will be to foster greater understanding and respect, engage in a productive dialog, heal wounds and explore potential outcomes.” (City Council meeting minutes; April 16, 2016)

FUTURE MEETING DATES: This is anticipated to be the final meeting of the Nablus Working Group.
