All speakers were randomized after Eventbrite online sign-up closed at 2 p.m. the day before the meeting.

Time for open comment on any subject not scheduled for public hearing is provided for at each regular business meeting of the council. Up to forty-five minutes is provided at the beginning of the meeting. During open comment, an individual speaker can speak for up to two minutes.

Sign up for speakers will be available via the internet, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that the agenda for the meeting is made available. Online sign up shall end at 2:00 p.m. on the day preceding a meeting, even if the day preceding a meeting is a holiday. No later than 5:00 p.m. on the day prior to the meeting or noon on the day of the meeting, if the day prior to the meeting is a city holiday, the city clerk shall post on the internet a list of no more than fifteen individuals who will be invited to speak at the meeting. If more than fifteen people register to speak, the city clerk shall select fifteen names at random from among those who have registered. In addition to those selected through the foregoing process, individuals may sign up to speak in person at council chambers beginning at 5:00 p.m. on the day of the meeting. Sign up shall close promptly at 6:00 p.m. Prior to open comment the presiding officer shall announce the names of five individuals selected at random to speak. If fewer than fifteen persons have registered online and there are more than five individuals who have signed up in person, the presiding officer may, if the meeting is scheduled to end no later than 10:30 p.m., add additional speakers to bring the total number of speakers to no more than twenty.
