
Archaeology and Historic Preservation Month Awards Ceremony

Please join us in acknowledging the Square Nail Award and the Local History and Preservation Award recipients, all of whom have made special contributions to historic preservation in Boulder County. The City of Boulder and Boulder County will also acknowledge special preservation projects and historic properties that have been designated in the past year.

Meet at the Chautauqua Community House on Morning Glory Drive at 6 p.m. on May 19. This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served at 5:30 p.m.

There will be a free tour of Chautauqua prior to the award ceremony, leaving from the Community House at 4 p.m.

Calendar of Events

Evolution of Activewear: Fibers, Function & Fashion Exhibit runs April 25th-August 17th, 2014

Advancements in textiles and technology have revolutionized the activewear industry. From the late 1800s to the present, changes in fabrication have enhanced performance – both structurally and athletically. Innovations in hiking, cycling, climbing, skiing and running apparel are the focus of the exhibition. Location: Boulder History Museum. General Admission $6. Tuesday-Friday 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday-Sunday 12-4 p.m.

Friday, May 2nd, 2014, 12-1:15 p.m.

If These Walls Could Talk...Homes of Early Black Boulder Citizens

Join History Colorado's and Boulder's Dan Corson for a presentation on the homes and residents of Boulder's early African-American residents. Learn why a mostly integrated community became increasingly segregated in the 1920s, especially in 'The Little Rectangle,' a part of the Goss-Grove neighborhood. Corson will also explain why this unique history of Boulder is at risk of being forgotten.

2205 Broadway, Boulder History Museum, downtown location. General Admission $5, Boulder History Museum and Historic Boulder members free. For information contact Carol Taylor, 303-449-3464.

Saturday, May 3rd, 2014, 2:15 p.m.

Walking Tour of Historic Original Superior

Join the Superior Historical Commission for its annual walk to Grasso Park and the Industrial Mine Camp and Mine site. This will be a 2 plus mile walk and the area around the Mine Camp site is rough and uneven. Wear appropriate footwear. There is no cost but we ask you to register by calling the Town of Superior, 303-499-3675.

Wednesday, May 7th, 2014, 7-8 p.m.

The Back Side of History: An Archaeological Excavation of a Lafayette Outhouse

In 2010, Dr. Rebecca Schwendler excavated the outhouse belonging to her 1892 Victorian home in Lafayette, Colorado. She recovered over 100 artifacts providing insight into the house's previous residents and the illicit activities they were hiding. University of Colorado Museum of Natural History, Paleontology Hall, 1030 Broadway, Boulder, CO.

Digging Allenspark: 1864 Comes to Life

Over the last two summers, Allenspark dug into its past – specifically, the 1864 fireplace of their namesake, Alonzo Allen. Professional and volunteer archaeologists came together to investigate the mysteries of the man and his cabin. Local historian Edie DeVese will talk about the archaeological dig that unearthed fascinating answers, a few new questions, and a trove of unexpected artifacts, some of which will be on display. Carnegie Branch Library for Local History, 1125 Pine St., Boulder, CO 80302. Free. Contact Wendy Hall at 303-441-3110.
