

Boulder Police Department

Application for Civilian Ride-Along

In order to participate in the Boulder police Ride-Along program, applicants must meet the following criteria:

Participants must be over eighteen years of age.

No felony arrests or convictions. No misdemeanor arrests or convictions in the previous three years. A criminal background check to include a review of any contacts with the Boulder Police Department will be conducted on all applicants.

In consideration of this application I agree to the following:

1. That I am aware of all the inherent dangers involved and I freely and knowingly assume all risks to my person and/ or property.
2. That I, my heirs, executors and assigns indemnify and hold harmless the City of Boulder, and any of its employees, for any claims, amounts, and/or damages that may arise from my conduct while I am participating in the Ride-Along program.
3. That I will remain in the vehicle at all times unless instructed otherwise by a police officer, but that this agreement also covers all situations when I choose to get out of the vehicle.
4. That I am participating as a civilian and I am strictly prohibited from performing any law enforcement functions.
5. That I will not divulge - contrary to law - any confidential information that I learn while participating in the Ride-Along program.
6. I understand that I must dress appropriately for the Ride-Along; no shorts, flip-flops, sandals or t-shirts are allowed. Jeans are allowed if they are clean with no holes.
7. That I will not photograph, or record any audio/video footage during my Ride-Along without prior approval of the Operations Deputy Chief.

Participants should allow at least two weeks for the scheduling of their ride-along
