I certify that:

- I am currently certified with the City of Boulder and have been preapproved for a mortgage for the purchase price of the property listed below.
- I currently meet the income threshold for this specific home and other eligibility requirements for program participation, even if this information has changed since I was found eligible for the program.
- I have personally viewed the property listed below at a showing or open house or obtained information from the developer's representative.
- I have reviewed the provisions of the Covenant and am willing to accept the terms, conditions, and restrictions therein.
- I understand that if I am contacted by the seller or their real estate agent I have 24 hours to make an offer by submitting a Colorado Real Estate Commission contract.
- I understand that if the documentation I provided for certification or information provided in this selection form is found to be inaccurate at any time, before or after the selection date, I may be disqualified from this and future selection processes. If inaccurate information is found during the contract period, I will be required to withdraw my offer and will be disqualified from purchasing the home. If inaccurate information is found after going under contract, I will be required to terminate any contract in progress.
